

Keynote Speaker

Pat Vincent-Collawn

Chairman, President and CEO of PNM Resources

Pat Vincent-Collawn is Chairman, President and CEO of PNM Resources, the parent company for utilities PNM in New Mexico and TNMP in Texas.

Pat joined PNM Resources in 2007, serving as Utilities President with responsibility for overseeing the daily operation of PNM and TNMP. In 2008, she was named President and Chief Operating Officer, and in March 2010 became President and CEO of PNM Resources. The Board elected her Chairman in January 2012.

Prior to PNM Resources, Pat was at Xcel Energy where she was President and CEO of Public Service Company of Colorado. Previous to that, as Xcel's President of Customer and Field Operations, she oversaw transmission and distribution operations as well as customer service across 10 states. Pat also held management positions with Arizona Public Service, and outside the energy industry with Price Waterhouse and Quaker Oats.

Pat serves on the boards of the Edison Electric Institute as Chair and EPRI (Electric Research Power Institute) where she is immediate past Chair. She also serves on the board of NEIL (Nuclear Electric Insurance Limited) and of CTS Corporation (NYSE:CTS). Pat was appointed Chair of the New Mexico Partnership by Governor Susana Martinez in 2015. She is a member of the Economic Advisory Council for the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City. Pat is Chair-elect of the Greater Albuquerque Chamber of Commerce, and past Chair of United Way of Central New Mexico and the Kirtland Partnership Committee.

She holds a bachelor's degree in journalism (magna cum laude) from Drake University and an MBA from the Harvard University Graduate School of Business.
